

Marion Rogers

As a dedicated married mother of four, Marion Rogers has been able to model for her family what hard work and sacrifice will earn you as she has spent the past seven years pursuing her dream of working in Film and Television. Passionate about her future in the Industry, Marion applied herself wholeheartedly to networking and honing her craft in this field.

Working as a licensed cosmetologist for the past 17 years, Marion Rogers has touched thousands of people's lives. She takes continued education and training seriously, and now specializes in styling, custom coloring and hair extensions. She is flexible and adept at working with both hair of all genders and all ages.

From styling hair for music videos and short films, to most recently working on the set of The Voice and Days of Our Lives, Marion has seen this passion and dedication pay off as her opportunities have grown. She is excited for all the future opportunities to come.

Now as a member of the Local 706 hairstylist guild, she knows possibilities are endless and is up for the challenge.
